Φιλοσοφία (Philosophia): International Journal of Philosophy is an open-access journal published every January and June of each year. Manuscripts submitted for publication in the journal must be sent to the Editor of Philosophia, via email attachment (philosophiaeditor@gmail.com). Manuscripts are double-blind refereed. To view samples of the journal, please visit <http://www.pnprs-philosophia.com>.

References and bibliography should utilize standard parenthetical references (PR) and reference lists (RL). This may be done in accord with the specifications given in the seventh edition of Kate Turabian's A manual for writers. Those submissions not in accord with this documentation convention may be returned to the authors for revisions prior to sending to the readers. The editor, associate editor, and book review editor reserve the right to make editorial modifications.

Authors are responsible for the accuracy of all quotations and for providing complete references. An abstract of not more than two hundred words, summarizing the thesis or intent of the article, should be appended along with the brief curriculum vitae of the author. Contributors should keep their own copies of all materials submitted. They should also include their respective email and exact mailing addresses. For multiple submissions, only one paper will be published every year. The medium of expression of the journal is English—American or British.

Authors of published articles are entitled to receive a printed copy of the issue where their papers are published; they will have to shoulder the mailing cost. Article Processing Charge (APC) is collected from the authors which includes their membership to the Philippine National Philosophical Research Society. This is to support financially the continued publication of this journal, both online and in print.
